

UL Cybercamp 2022

The UL Cybercamp is designed to introduce second level students to some ICT basics. Suitable for girls and boys, no previous experience required.

Students will be shown key elements of a modern ICT course and will learn skills useful in any future career in ICT such as:

- Web design build and format simple webpages
- Java programming develop a simple one-person game
- Electronics and robots develop simple circuits, programme simple robots

3 Camps, 3 Topics, 3 Days

Choose one of the following start dates. Each camp will cover the three topics above.

Camp 1:	Camp 2:	Camp 3:
Mon 27 June, Tue 28 June, and Wed 29 June	Thu 30 June, Fri 01 July, and Mon 04 July	Tue 05 July, Wed 06 July, and Thu 07 July

FOR MORE DETAILS AND CAMP REGISTRATION VISIT OUR WEBSITE

<https://pslc.ul.ie/cybercamp/>

The camp is free due to funding from the HEA Summer Camps programme but spaces are limited so book your place now!